

THE NORTHCOAST BIG BAND

RETURNS BY REQUEST, TO
MAPS AIR MUSEUM

Plan now to attend, 1940's WW II HANGAR DANCE,
SATURDAY JULY 11, 2026

Back by popular demand, the Northcoast Big Band returns, taking everyone on a musical journey in re-creating the music and atmosphere of a HANGAR DANCE, held inside the Maps Air Museum Hangar. The enthusiastic dancing audience will hear all their Big Band favorites from String of Pearls, In the Mood, Chattanooga Choo-Choo to Pennsylvania 6500 and much more. You'll step back in time to when U.S. military bases stationed abroad tried to re-create those huge ballroom-size dance halls by having "HANGAR DANCES". Be sure to bring your dancing shoes!

THE DETAILS:

WHEN: Saturday, July 11, 2026 Music starts at 7:30pm to 9:30pm

WHERE: MAPS AIR MUSEUM, 2260 International Parkway, North Canton, Ohio 44720

ENTRANCE: $15.00 per person, at the Hangar entrance. Food and beverage available for purchase.

UNIFORM: Wear your Military Dress Uniform, or vintage attire of 1944.

FOR MORE INFORMATION: CALL MAPS AIR MUSEUM at 330-896-6332

FOLLOW THE NORTHCOAST BIG BAND on Facebook and www.northcoastbigband.com